

PSPA TUITION POLICIES & FEES 2023 - 2024 Season

The policies and fees outlined below are for enrollment in weekly classes (dance, music, theater) at The Pennsylvania School of the Performing Arts. Please be aware that private instruction in dance, music, and theater follows a separate set of policies and fee schedule. That information can be found on the PSPA website, or by emailing pspastudios@gmail.com.

PSPA TUITION POLICIES:

- Tuition is calculated based on a 36-week season (September 5 - June 10) and divided into 9 even payments (September - May).
- All students must have a registered account in The Studio Director; siblings in the same family should be registered in a single family account.
- A one-time registration fee of $60 and non-refundable deposit of last month's tuition (May 2024) are due upon enrollment. There is a $20 registration fee for each additional child.
- Upon enrollment, families commit to the PSPA Season Commitment Policy. Enrollment in the fall semester constitutes commitment to payment for all sessions September - December; enrollment for the spring semester constitutes the same for January - May.
- All families must have a debit or credit card on file. Tuition payment via cash, check, Venmo, or ZELLE may be accepted on a case by case basis. Please email pspastudios@gmail.com for more information.
- Tuition is charged automatically via The Studio Director on the first of each month.
- If a student enrolls in the middle of a session (month), tuition is prorated for the remaining classes.
- Classes can be made up anytime within a month of the missed classes. Families are responsible for contacting the studio to schedule their make-up. No refunds will be given for missed classes.
- All fees are subject to change. There are no refunds for dues paid.
